I am very happy to see that ACRSICON 2024 is happening in the capital city of Tamil Nadu, Chennai.

Chennai has always been on the forefront in every field of education from Arts to Science since ages.

It is also a major centre for Medical tourism and hence aptly called as " India's Health Capital".

It is well connected with all the parts of the country with every mode of transport making travelling for the delegates easy and comfortable.

It has world class infrastructure and plenty of tourist places to visit. It is a must to savor South Indian cuisine which is not only tasty but healthy too.

I am sure that my hard working colleagues in the Organising Committee would leave no stone unturned to make the ACRSICON 2024, a memorable conference.

I invite you all to be a part of it and wish a grand success.

Jai Hind....

Long live ACRSI....

Message from Hon. Secretary

Dr. Kamal Gupta
Secretary,
ACRSI

On behalf of The Association of Colon and Rectal Surgeons of India, I warmly welcome all the delegates for ACRSICON 2024 to be held in Chennai.

ACRSICON is the association's prestigious annual conference, where the delegates will learn the latest and widely accepted surgical procedures in coloproctology, being practiced worldwide. This is the platform where eminent national and international faculty deliver didactic lectures, symposiums, video presentations and panel discussions. Special sessions, "Meet the Professor", are organized where the delegates can interact with renowned academicians.

The conference will give a great opportunity for young surgeons to present their work through videos and paper presentations.

I wish Dr. R Kannan and Dr. M Kanagavel, the Organizing chairman and the Organizing secretary and the Chennai Team, great success.
